

Wilmington Police have made an arrest in a three and a half year old homicide case that took the lives of two Wilmington men.

Wilmington Police have arrested 26 year old Jonathan Doe of Reiglewood and charged him with 2 counts of 1st degree murder. Doe is allegedly accused of killing 24 year old Irvin Drummond of Clay Street in Wilmington and 34 year old Alvin Jones of Carlyle Lane of Wilmington. Both men were shot and killed on August 26, 2001 in the 3100 block of Princess Place Drive around 3:50 in the morning.

Members of the Police Department's Cold Case Unit have worked for more than 3 years interviewing and gathering information on the whereabouts of Doe. Yesterday at approximately 5:30 p.m., officers located Doe without incident. He is in the New Hanover County Jail awaiting his first appearance.

